KeyMacro is the most popular and powerful Windows clipboard manager. It allows you to copy web pages, or any other text, from Microsoft Edge, Internet Explorer and Firefox, and paste them into Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and any other applications. With KeyMacro, you can easily copy and paste addresses, stock quotes, and even web links. KeyMacro is capable of recording clips from web pages, capturing text from documents, emails and chat conversations, text from applications like Word, Excel, or PowerPoint, files, web pages, and chats, and pasting them into any other application. KeyMacro is a powerful and easy-to-use software. It supports automatically recording and extracting video and audio from YouTube and any other streaming media site. KeyMacro is the best tool to copy and paste online. It allows you to capture online data, even when you're not at a computer. KeyMacro is a reliable application, which comes with a number of useful features, including automatic recording, automatic extraction, and copy all/paste all. With over seven million downloads, ClipSage is one of the most used and trusted tools for saving and sharing text snippets from web pages. However, this application has a number of advanced features such as the ability to record streaming videos and automatically find the URLs of your favorite websites. Before we begin with a detailed description of the features, let's see how it works. You can connect it to your Wi-Fi network and access your clipboard from anywhere on your device, or even on your desktop. The application, on its turn, creates a folder on your computer where you can store your clips. Once the desired file is saved, you can simply copy it into your preferred text editor or email client, or open it directly in the browser by pasting it into the address bar. The application is easy to use. Simply press the + button to record a short piece of text from the site. When the clip is saved, it will be displayed in the ClipSage folder, which you can simply rename or delete it from. To make the record feature even more useful, you can choose whether to copy or record the video. To be honest, the application is not perfect. For instance, we would love to have a button for adding the clip to the clipboard, or a button for searching for URLs. However, if you are satisfied with the features that the app offers, then it might be one of the 81e310abff
